METROPOLE EVENTS

NOVEMBER SALON @ WEXELERATE

Office Warming & Holiday Get Together

The Metropole team is growing! After months of sitting on top of each other, we finally decided to move offices last year and relocated to weXelerate in the 2nd district. In November, all Metropolitans were invited to join us in our new building for an office warming party that doubled as a Christmas celebration. We listened to classic carols performed by Meredith Brown with Sandy Schweighofer at the piano and had a grand old time with everyone in attendance. Deck the halls with pens and scotch tape!

FEBRUARY SALON @ APRON

It's Palentine's Day!

For the celebration of our winter issue "Music," we gathered at Hotel am Konzerthaus on February 13 and invited Gardiner von Trapp to speak about his famous family's rich history and to play us a recording of one of their songs. The host for the evening was the hotel's restaurant Apron that served delicious hors d'oeuvres and even created a special Metropolitan cocktail in the signature blue.

Because the first event of the new year happened to coincide with "Palentine's Day" (the day before Valentine's to celebrate with friends), we decided to turn the networking portion into the ultimate meet-and-greet soiree. Every five minutes, people would get a different conversation partner and make a new acquaintance. Metropolitans continued to chat long after the game was over and it's safe to say that several new friendships were formed that evening!

This Salon night was all about meeting new people and making friends! The "speed-networking" was a big hit with our guests.

Gardiner von Trapp, great-grandson of Georg von Trapp, told us his family's true story.

Make sure to join the next Salon on March 19 at Central European University (CEU).
